Unlearning Violence: Evidence and Policies for Early Childhood Development and Peace

February 13-14, 2014
ASEAN Auditorium
The Fletcher School at Tufts University

This inter-disciplinary conference will showcase the best ongoing research on early childhood development and violence and peace, charting directions for future research and policy.

Speakers Include:
- Steven Pinker
- Daniel Dennett
- Regina Sullivan
- Maryanne Wolf
- Theresa Betancourt
- Michael Wessells
- Dyan Mazurana
- Rima Salah
- Jennifer Batton
- Yasemin Sirali Altuğ
- Jacqueline Bhabha

Closing Remarks by Venerable Tenzin Priyadarshi Rinpoche

For event details and RSVP information visit: http://fletcher.tufts.edu/World-Peace-Foundation/Events/Unlearning-Violence

Unlearning Violence is organized by the World Peace Foundation, in association with the Eliot-Pearson Department of Child Development at Tufts University and the FXB Center for Health and Human Rights at Harvard University.

World Peace Foundation, 169 Holland Street, Suite 209, Somerville, Massachusetts (617) 627-2255